DIGEST

Currently, the justice of the peace has access to names drawn from the jury wheel for justice court juries. The problem is that constables were inadvertently omitted from names drawn from the jury wheel. S.B. 1083 requires a district clerk and the sheriff or any constable of a county to draw names of prospective juror.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 1083 requires a district clerk and the sheriff or any constable of the county to draw names of prospective jurors.
