DIGEST

Recently, the 74th Legislature directed the chief justice of the supreme court of Texas to establish the Texas Commission on Judicial Efficiency (commission). This commission made recommendations regarding information technology, funding parity, court performance measures, staff diversity, and judicial selection. This bill adopts most of the recommendations by establishing the Judicial Committee on Information Technology, and authorizing the Office of Court Administration to establish recruitment programs and other programs for law clerks and staff attorneys. Additionally, S.B. 1417 requires the Office of Court Administration to publish certain reports and establish the Office of Court Efficiency.
