DIGEST

The Texas National Guard Armory Board (board) was created in 1935 and is responsible for managing construction, control, maintenance, and operation of 113 National Guard armories in Texas. The board carries out its functions through a six-member body, composed of the two senior officers of the Texas Army National Guard, the senior officer of the Texas Air National Guard, and three members of the public. To carry out its functions the board had a budget of $24,713,072 and 32 employees in fiscal year 1996.

The board is subject to the Sunset Act and will be abolished September 1, 1997, unless continued by the legislature. As a result of its review of the board, the Sunset Advisory Commission recommended continuation with statutory modifications that are contained in this legislation.

PURPOSE

As proposed, S.B. 352 continues the Texas National Guard Armory Board for a four-year period and makes certain modifications including changes effecting the board's composition

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
