DIGEST

As of September 1, 1997, certain violations of the Parks and Wildlife Code were upgraded from Class C misdemeanor offenses to Class B and Class A misdemeanor offenses. Although these new classifications subject poachers to possible jail time in addition to fines, poaching continues. Poachers risk probation and fines by engaging in illegal hunting activities, because poaching could be a lucrative business and the benefits seem to outweigh the risks. H.B. 2526 would enhance the violations for poaching penalties by upgrading certain violations and making specified offenses state jail felonies, to deter further violations.

PURPOSE

As proposed, H.B. 2526 upgrades penalties for poaching violations.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
