DIGEST AND PURPOSE

H.J.R. 59 requires the submission to the voters of a constitutional amendment to authorize the legislature to permit a person to assume an office of a political subdivision without an election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election for that office.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Article XVI, Texas Constitution, by adding Section 13A, as follows:

Sec. 13A. Authorizes the legislature to provide by general law for a person to assume an office without an election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election to be held for that office, for an office of a political subdivision for which this constitution requires an election.

SECTION 2. Requires this proposed constitutional amendment to be submitted to the voters at an election to be held November 4, 2003. Requires the ballot to be printed to permit voting for or against the proposition: "The constitutional amendment authorizing the legislature to permit a person to assume an office of a political subdivision without an election if the person is the only candidate to qualify in an election for that office."
