S.B. 1015
By: Wentworth
Criminal Justice
4/9/2003
Committee Report (Amended)

DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, under the Public Information Act, information held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor or filed with a court and that is contained in a victim impact statement or was submitted for purposes of preparing a victim impact statement is not confidential. S.B. 1015 excepts certain information contained in a crime victim impact statement from disclosure under the Public Information Act. The exception would apply to the name, social security number, address, telephone number, and any other information that could be used to identify a crime victim.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Chapter 552C, Government Code, by adding Section 552.1325, as follows:

Sec. 552.1325. CRIME VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENT: CERTAIN INFORMATION CONFIDENTIAL. (a) Defines “crime victim” and “victim impact statement.”

(b) Provides that certain identifying information that is held by a law enforcement agency or prosecutor or filed with a court and that is contained in a victim impact statement or was submitted for purposes of preparing a victim impact statement is confidential.

SECTION 2. Effective date: upon passage or September 1, 2003.
