BILL ANALYSIS

Senate Research Center

S.B. 1665 By: Averitt Jurisprudence 4/4/2003 As Filed

DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Currently, a law enforcement officer is authorized to take custody of a child without a court order under certain circumstances. Once the law enforcement officer takes temporary custody of a child, the officer the maintains temporary custody until Child Protective Services (CPS) or the responsible party takes custody of the child. During this interim, the officer is removed from law enforcement duties and emergency response services. As proposed, S.B. 1665 authorizes civilian employees or volunteers of law enforcement agencies to assist police officers with the temporary care of a child until further arrangements regarding the child's custody can be made.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.

SECTION BY SECTION ANALYSIS

SECTION 1. Amends Chapter 262.001(c), Family Code, to authorize civilian employees or volunteers of law enforcement agencies to aid or assist police officers with the temporary care of children until further arrangements regarding the child's custody can be made.

SECTION 2. Effective date: September 1, 2003.