DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Current Texas law grants certain officers and individuals immunity in their functions as community supervision council members. Although those council members who are sheriffs, sheriff's employees, county judges, and county commissioners currently receive such immunity, county attorneys, district judges, district attorneys, and criminal district attorneys do not, even though state law requires such individuals to serve on community supervision councils. As proposed, S.B. 194 adds immunity for those individuals.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
