DIGEST AND PURPOSE

Under current law, making a terroristic threat to any person is a Class B misdemeanor offense. Increasing the penalty for a terroristic threat could deter an individual from engaging in that act. As proposed, S.B. 408 provides that a terroristic threat that places any person in fear of imminent serious bodily injury is a Class A misdemeanor, rather than a Class B misdemeanor, if it is committed against the actor's family or household or against a public servant.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
