AUTHOR'S/SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, there are no time limits placed on counties regarding their processing of permits. The time between applying for and the approval of a permit can range from six weeks to seven months.

H.B. 266 requires counties to review a permit application within six weeks of its filing. If the permit is not approved, the county is required to send a letter to the applicant that discusses the problems with the application or to meet with the applicant. If the builder addresses the problems and resubmits the application, the county has one month to approve or reject the application or all permit fees are waived.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
