AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Since 1996, the Texas Ethics Commission (commission) has approved the ethical and legal use of campaign funds for state legislators to pay rent for Austin lodging if the rented property is separate property owned by the legislator's spouse. In 2007, the commission affirmed its previous opinion (Ethics Advisory Opinion No. 319) of the legality of such campaign fund use. Recent press reports and political campaigns, however, have shed light on situations in which persons running for or to remain in office have paid for housing with campaign funds to an extent that lies outside of the intended meaning of the advisory opinion.

H.B. 3066 prohibits legislators from using campaign funds to pay rent for either community property or separate property of their spouses.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
