AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Currently, Texas law allows certain offenses to be tried at the next higher category of offense if it is shown at trial that the offense was committed against an elderly individual. However, these offenses do not include forgery, credit and debit card abuse, or fraudulent use of identifying information. This often leads prosecutors to try offenders under an alternative offense.

H.B. 2328 increases the penalty for credit and debit card abuse to a third degree felony if the offense is committed against an elderly individual.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
