C.S.S.B. 1164

Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

To receive a license to carry a concealed handgun in Texas, a person must be a legal resident of Texas, at least 21 years of age (or honorably discharged or active duty military, regardless of age), fully qualified under applicable federal and state law to purchase a handgun, and of sound mind, and may not be a convicted felon, a fugitive from justice for a Class A or B misdemeanor or felony, chemically dependent, delinquent in state or local taxes, delinquent in child support payments collected by the attorney general, in default on a student loan, or restricted under protective order or subject to a restraining order affecting the spousal relationship.

Under current law, concealed handguns are prohibited on Texas college and university campuses. In an effort to aid students, faculty, and visitors on college campuses in protecting themselves not only from mass shootings like those that occurred on Virginia Tech University and Northern Illinois University campuses, but from other life-threatening situations that may occur on campus, this bill would allow persons who are licensed to carry a concealed weapon to do so on a college campus.

C.S.S.B. 1164 relates to the carrying of concealed handguns on the campuses of institutions of higher education
