AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current statute, nine of the 14 courts of appeals districts have appellate judicial funds that were created to assist in the administrative costs of the appellate court. The accounts are funded by small fees on each civil suit filed in the county courts, statutory county courts, probate courts, and district courts. The chief justice of each of the courts of appeal has the statutory authority to administer the fund. The Seventh Court of Appeals does not currently have the authority to collect this fee.

S.B. 1208 establishes an appellate judicial fund for the Seventh Court of Appeals District by requiring that the commissioners court in each county in the district set a $5 fee for every civil suit filed in the appellate court district.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
