AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

S.B. 1162 is the seventh bill in the Texas Legislative Council's ongoing project to codify the local laws that govern special districts in this state. The first bill was enacted by the 78th regular legislative session in 2003.

S.B. 1162 places 46 new chapters into the Special District Local Laws Code (five drainage districts, four fresh water supply districts, one special utility district, 15 municipal utility districts, one river authority, 17 water control and improvement districts, and three districts with combined powers), with each chapter codifying all of the local laws that govern a particular special district.

Today, the law governing many special districts can only be reliably located in multiple volumes of the session laws. Eventually, each local law that governs a special district will be codified in the Special District Local Laws Code. The intent of S.B. 1162 and the Texas Legislative Council's statutory revision program is to make this information more readily accessible to the public.

As proposed, S.B. 1162 amends current law relating to the nonsubstantive revision of certain local laws concerning water and wastewater special districts, including conforming amendments.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
