AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

In addition to the rising cost of tuition at institutions of higher education, fees are also a significant cost to students attending college. Unlike tuition costs, which are determined by an institution's governing board, student fees can be raised through student elections, which traditionally have very low voter turnout, often less than 10 percent. Additionally, fees can be voted on by an institution's current student population and then continue for years to come and charged to students who had no vote in the original fee election.

In order to authorize or raise existing student fees, S.B. 837 requires that student elections at general academic institutions have at least 10 percent of the student population participate in the election. S.B. 837 also requires that the majority of those students participating have a certain amount of semester credit hours remaining to complete in their degree plan.

As proposed, S.B. 837 amends current law relating to requirements for student elections to authorize or increase certain fees at public institutions of higher education.

RULEMAKING AUTHORITY

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
