And God said: "It shall come to pass whenever I bring a cloud over the earth, that a rainbow shall be seen."

Living Lord, we take from the pages of your word, our sign for today—the rainbow. In our mind's eye this morning we see, from border to border, a rainbow over our entire state, placed there to remind us that:

Light always overcomes darkness.

Promise is always greater than problems.

Faith always conquers doubt.

Hope is always stronger than memory.

Future is always brighter than past.

For these our representatives who lead us under this Texas rainbow, a promise and opportunity, we ask vision, common sense, wisdom, and good judgment.

For the rest of us who follow under the rainbow, we ask trust, patience, commitment, and understanding.

Thank you for the rainbow. Keep the rainbow bright in the name of Christ who makes the present good and the future better. Amen.
