C.S.S.B. 1218
By: Campbell
Jurisprudence
5/8/2013
Committee Report (Substituted)

AUTHOR'S / SPONSOR'S STATEMENT OF INTENT

Under current law, a person may apply for a marriage license with 19 different forms of identification. Several of these forms of identification do not include a photograph of the applicant and may be expired up to two years.

C.S.S.B. 1218 restricts the current list of documents used for identification to include documents issued by a governmental entity with a photograph of the applicant and further limits the amount of time which a document can be expired.

C.S.S.B. 1218 amends current law relating to the proof of an applicant's identity and age required for the issuance of a marriage license.

This bill does not expressly grant any additional rulemaking authority to a state officer, institution, or agency.
